BOXING.

To-night at the Fulton arena of the Metropolitan Athletic club one of the best boxing bouts ever given by this organization will be pulled off, and the ndications are that there will be a large attendance. The principals are Buck Stelzer, of Columbus, and Jack Bowen, now of Little Washington. Both men are now in the city, Bowen having come over from the Pennsylvania town last night.

The bouts will be started at 8:20 o'clock, on the arrival of the 8 o'clock motor from the city. There will be several preliminaries, in all of which good talent will figure.

Tickets for the bouts are on sale at Bader & Mauer's on Market street. Wheelmen attending the contests can have their wheels cared for at the

With the state university as a theme for conversation, Mr. Barbe is at his best. His love for his alma mater is deep within him, and he is untiringly devoted to its advancement. To his energy and eloquence is largely due the present enrollment of 463 students, the largest in the history of the school, and to this number might be added the fifty-nine students at the Montgomery preparatory school, in Fayette county, which is under the university management. Mr. Barbe leaves this morning for a short stay at his home town, Parkersburg. The chance of securing a student for the university, however, would change his plans at a moment's notice; for new students haunt his dreams, and a rough ride through the mountainous interor is pleasure to him, if game—a prospective student—is in sight.
